The Joe Opatowski Memorial Walk the Walk-a-thon

How long does the Walk the Walk-a-thon last?

It will run for three weeks this year. It officially begins on December 1st and ends on December 20th. Unofficially, it lasts all year! ☺

Do I commit a kind act and then ask that person for pledge money?

No. You will go out and collect pledges from sponsors who will agree to pay you to commit kind acts. Then, you go out and get busy. At the end of the campaign, you return to your sponsors, show them your log book and collect the pledge money.

Do people have to pledge me per kind act?

They can if they wish, but a flat rate is also fine. Remember, we are hopefully going to be committing many, many kind acts so you might want to warn the generous person who promises $5 per kind act! We will be grateful for any and all money that comes out of this event.

Can people who didn't know Joe still do the Walk the Walk-a-thon?

Yes! That would be great.

When does my money have to be in and where do I take it?

Your log books and money (cash and/or cheques) must be delivered to Rebecca or Christian Fleisig in room 307 at Elizabeth Ziegler P.S. BY DECEMBER 22nd at 4:00. Cheques are payable to Free the Children. In January, we will host a celebration for all who have taken part in the campaign to share stories, have fun and announce the grand total.
